RESOLUTIONS ON FIRST READING

House Resolution 44

Representatives Murphy, Porter, Hinkle, Mays, and Day introduced House Resolution 44:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION honoring John Hall.

Whereas, John Hall currently serves as Field Office Director for the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) at the Indianapolis office;

Whereas, John Hall directs the Indianapolis office with a staff of 87 people and three additional people in Gary;

Whereas, When John Hall came to HUD, he brought with him a solid knowledge of neighborhood issues and recognized the importance of a safe living environment and of the opportunity for Hoosiers to own their own home;

Whereas, In an effort to better understand the needs of the area he serves, John Hall has been meeting with mayors, housing authority executives, community development professionals, and others to get an understanding of the strengths and challenges of each of the communities in Indiana;

Whereas, Under the guidance of John Hall, the Indianapolis office has doubled its home ownership outreach activities, including participating in the Indiana State Fair to increase homeowners, specifically minority homeowners, in Indiana; the Multi-Family Division has led the country in refinancing of FHA mortgages allowing for the continuation of affordable housing; partnered with the Indiana State Department of Health to enhance a statewide effort to eliminate lead hazards endangering children under six; and enabled our faith-based initiatives to generate over 200 participants statewide in the grant writing forums;

Whereas, Before accepting his position with HUD, John Hall served as the Director of Neighborhood Relations for the Health and Hospital Corporation of Marion County and as Deputy Mayor of Indianapolis under Mayor Stephen Goldsmith;

Whereas, In addition to his work locally, John Hall served as a senior aide to Senator Richard Lugar for 15 years, as an administrator at the Purdue University School of Engineering and Technology at IUPUI, and as a history and government teacher/coach/trainer at Arsenal Technical High School; and

Whereas, John Hall brings with him a wealth of knowledge that will be put to good use improving the living conditions and neighborhoods of Indiana: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives thanks John Hall for all his work on behalf of the citizens of Indiana.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to John Hall.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Concurrent Resolution 46

Representatives Porter and Buell introduced House Concurrent Resolution 46:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION honoring Cordelia Lewis Burks.

Whereas, After years of dedicated service, Cordelia Lewis Burks is retiring as the Director of the Politics and Legislation Division of the American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees International Union of Indiana;

Whereas, In 1980, after working 20 years in the nursing and administrative areas at Central State Hospital, Cordelia accepted a position with the Indiana State AFL-CIO as the first black staff representative for the labor federation of over 300,000 union members;

Whereas, After spending six years with the Indiana AFL-CIO as director of labor education and director of community services and directing the state federation's programs of Volunteers in Politics and labor education, she accepted a position in Washington, D.C. as the Civil Rights Director for the Service Employees International Union;

Whereas, Although Cordelia enjoyed her time in Washington, she soon became homesick for the Midwest;

Whereas, Cordelia returned to Indianapolis and began working as the first black female business agent for Local 135 of the Teamsters Union;

Whereas, In early 1989, Cordelia was offered the position of directing the programs of politics and legislation in Indiana for the American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees International Union;

Whereas, In this position, Cordelia was the union's chief lobbyist in Indiana and traveled the nation working in campaigns and providing political education training programs for union members;

Whereas, In addition to her service with the union, Cordelia served Governor Frank O'Bannon as a member of the 317 Task Force for Development Disabilities and was a member of the board of the Central Indiana Community Services Council;

Whereas, Although Cordelia maintained a very busy schedule, she always had time to serve her community;

Whereas, Cordelia serves as a board member of the National A. Philip Randolph Institute, and is a member of the National Labor Ad Hoc Committee of the NAACP and the National Council of Negro Women, the labor roundtable of the National Conference of Black State Legislators and the Indiana Democratic African American Caucus, the Indiana Black Legislative Caucus, and the Executive Council of the National Coalition of Black Trade Unionists;

Whereas, Cordelia is also a board member of the Indiana Women Historical Society and Women for Better Government, served on the State Board of the Citizens Action Coalition and the Indianapolis Urban League Advisory Committee, served as the Indiana Labor Chair of the United Negro College Fund and the Labor Advisory Committee of Indianapolis; and in 1990, Governor Evan Bayh appointed her to the Indiana Coal Forum; and

Whereas, Cordelia Lewis Burks was born in the coal mining area of Eastern Kentucky, but she is truly a Hoosier at heart: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the House of Representatives
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the Senate concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly thanks Cordelia Lewis Burks for her years of dedicated service to her state and her community and wishes her happiness and contentment in her retirement.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to the Cordelia Lewis Burks and her family.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution. Senate sponsors: Senators Breaux and Howard.

House Concurrent Resolution 47

Representatives Welch, Pierce, and Tincher introduced House Concurrent Resolution 47:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION honoring Janna Brancolini.

Whereas, Janna Brancolini was named the Indiana High School Journalist of the Year by the Indiana High School Press Association;

Whereas, Janna, who is editor-in-chief of the North Star, the Bloomington North High School newspaper, will represent Indiana in the JEA/NSPA National Journalist of the Year contest in April;

Whereas, In addition to her work on the North Star, Janna also contributes to The Herald-Times' weekly YouthINK page;

Whereas, Janna has been interested in writing since she was very young, displaying her exceptional talent as early as the second grade;

Whereas, Janna, who is also a member of the Bloomington North's Science Olympiad squad, is interested in coupling science with journalism;

Whereas, Janna feels journalism is a way to bridge the gap between the arts and science; and

Whereas, Janna Brancolini is a very special person who plans to use her journalistic talents toward the betterment of society: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the House of Representatives
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the Senate concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly congratulates Janna Brancolini on her selection as the Indiana High School Journalist of the Year and wishes her continued success in her future endeavors.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Janna Brancolini and her family.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution. Senate sponsor: Senator Simpson.

House Concurrent Resolution 48

Representative Welch introduced House Concurrent Resolution 48:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION honoring the Bloomington North High School Science Olympiad team.

Whereas, The Bloomington North High School Science Olympiad team placed first in the state competition for the fifth consecutive year, establishing a new state record and earning the right to represent the state at the National Science Olympiad in Illinois in May;

Whereas, The Science Olympiad is an international, nonprofit organization devoted to improving the quality of science education;

Whereas, Science Olympiad tournaments are academic, interscholastic competitions, following the format of popular board games, TV shows, and athletic games, and consist of a series of 32 individual and team events;

Whereas, The National Science Olympiad was created in 1983 to increase young people's interest in science and to act as an alternative to science fairs;

Whereas, Participants reach the state tournament by winning one of eight regional events that are held at colleges and universities throughout Indiana;

Whereas, Students in the Olympiad are tested in biology, earth sciences, chemistry, physics, problem solving, technology, teamwork, group planning, and cooperation; and

Whereas, In college and for the rest of their lives, these students will find that the team spirit and good sportsmanship they developed during the Science Olympiad will be one of the deciding factors in all their future successes: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the House of Representatives
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the Senate concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly acknowledges the tremendous amount of time and effort that went into this state title and encourages the students of Bloomington North High School to continue their pursuit of knowledge.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to the members of the Bloomington North High School Science Olympiad team and their coach, the high school principal, and the superintendent.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution. Senate sponsor: Senator Simpson.

House Concurrent Resolution 49

Representatives Welch and Pierce introduced House Concurrent Resolution 49:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION congratulating the Indiana University soccer team on winning the 2004 NCAA championship.

Whereas, The Indiana University soccer team successfully defended its title to become the National Collegiate Athletic Association national champion for the second consecutive year;

Whereas, The 2004 NCAA title is the Hoosiers' seventh title and the culmination of a 19-4-1 overall season;

Whereas, In the team's march to the first championship for new head coach Mike Freitag, the fourth ranked Hoosiers won ten of the last 11 games;

Whereas, The team earned its 2004 Division I championship by defeating No. 2 California-Santa Barbara, 3-2, in a penalty-kick tiebreaker after the two schools played a 1-1 draw;

Whereas, Indiana's Drew Moor and Danny O'Rourke were first team selections to the 2004 All-America team;

Whereas, Although he is a first-year head coach, Freitag is no stranger to IU soccer;

Whereas, Freitag was a standout defender for the Hoosiers from 1976 to 1979, served as a graduate assistant coach from 1983 to 1986, and a full-time assistant from 1993 to 2003 before replacing Jerry Yeagley as head coach; and

Whereas, The Indiana University soccer team displayed courage and a never-give-up attitude, which will help the team's outstanding young athletes become valuable and productive members of society: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the Senate concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly congratulates the Indiana University soccer team on its seventh NCAA title and wishes team members continued success both on and off the soccer field.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives transmit copies of this resolution to the members, managers, and coaches of the Indiana University soccer team and the president of Indiana University.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution. Senate sponsor: Senator Simpson.

House Concurrent Resolution 50

Representatives Welch and Pierce introduced House Concurrent Resolution 50:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION honoring Danny O'Rourke as the 2004 national soccer player of the year.

Whereas, Danny O'Rourke is the sixth Indiana Hoosier soccer player to be named national player of the year and to receive the Missouri Athletic Club's Hermann Trophy;

Whereas, O'Rourke, captain of the 2003 and 2004 NCAA National Championship teams, started 83 matches during his four year career at Indiana University;

Whereas, During O'Rourke's career, the team went 69-15-9, with four regular season Big Ten championships, two Big Ten Tournament championships, and three College Cup Final appearances;

Whereas, Danny O'Rourke's career includes many highlights, including two unanimous first team All-Big Ten selections, two first team NSCAA All-Great Lakes Region selections, selection to the 2004 first team NSCAA/Adidas All-American team, and selection to the first team College Soccer News All-America team, and named as one of 11 players honored on Soccer America's MVP team;

Whereas, In addition to his prowess on the soccer field, O'Rourke was a shining star in the classroom;

Whereas, O'Rourke was named the NSCAA/Adidas Scholar Athlete of the Year, a first team NSCAA Scholar All-American, and a third team ESPN Academic All-American, as well as being a three-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree while majoring in biochemistry, and a first team CoSIDA Academic All-District V selection each of the last two seasons;

Whereas, O'Rourke will be continuing his soccer career beyond the collegiate level with his fourth overall selection in the 2005 Major League Soccer SuperDraft by the San Jose Earthquakes; and

Whereas, Danny O'Rourke is a shining example of the Hoosier athlete, who through hard work and dedication has excelled both on and off the athletic field: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the Senate concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly congratulates Danny O'Rourke for the many accomplishments of his collegiate career and wishes him success in his professional career.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Danny O'Rourke and his family.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution. Senate sponsor: Senator Simpson.
